CHANDLER REGIONAL MEDICAL CENTER RECEIVES THE BUSINESS DIVERSITY IN ACTION AWARD FROM THE CHANDLER CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

CHANDLER, Ariz. (June 25, 2010) –Chandler Regional Medical Center, a member of Catholic Healthcare West (CHW), was awarded the Business Diversity in Action Award at the Chandler Chamber of Commerce Annual Awards dinner on Thursday, June 10th.

Each year businesses and individuals throughout the community are recognized and honored for their contributions to the City of Chandler. The nominations were accepted by the Chandler Chamber of Commerce while a volunteer committee reviewed and selected the recipients.

In order to qualify, Chandler Regional Medical Center had to create a significant difference in the promotion of diversity in its business. Chandler Regional is committed to recruiting and implementing diversity by making it a priority in executive decisions, providing leadership and employee training, and supporting volunteer efforts surrounding diversity.

Chandler Regional Medical Center provides mandatory training classes for all staff members discussing differences in culture, gender, race, age and religion. These classes help bring awareness to everyone in the organization about the many faces of diversity, not only in patient populations, but among co-workers as well.

“It is an honor to be recognized by the Chandler Chamber of Commerce for our commitment to encompass diversity throughout our medical center,” said Patty White, president and CEO of Chandler Regional Medical Center. “By making these classes available, an understanding of all of our differences develops.”
